

Guinea Pig Fun Facts

Drs. Foster & Smith Educational Staff

Guinea Pig Fun Facts

- Another name for a guinea pig is a "cavy." Wild cavies live in social groups called "herds."
- A male guinea pig is a boar and a female is a sow. Baby guinea pigs are pups.

- Guinea pigs may live as long as five to seven years.
- Guinea pigs are social creatures who need daily quality time and interaction with their human family.
- Guinea pigs love being petted and will fall asleep in your lap if they trust you.
- Guinea pigs can develop social relationships with people or other species of animals.
- A guinea pig's ears are very sensitive to loud noises.
- If your guinea pig assumes a stretched-out posture, this means that she is in a relaxed mode.
- A happy guinea pig may jump straight up and down; this is called "popcorning" in juvenile guinea pigs.
- Guinea pigs are unable to manufacture Vitamin C within their bodies; therefore, this vitamin must be supplemented.

- A guinea pig's teeth constantly grow, so she needs an appropriate chew toy to keep teeth properly worn down.