WINDOW WATCHING

Is your cat mesmerized by the world outside? Does he run to the window every time a bird flies to the feeder? Window watching is a great form of entertainment for your feline friend. Give him a comfortable, cat-friendly observation point and watch his tail twitch in delight. He'll forget all about off-limits tabletops and counters.

ELEVATE HIS BED

Start with a fleecy soft cat bed, and place it up where he can enjoy the view. As long as his safety is not compromised, try it on an end table, cat tree perch, or pet stairs.

Watching out the window is a favorite cat pastime. Add a little height and a comfortable seat, and he has the perfect observation point.
